18 U.S. Code § 225 - Continuing financial crimes enterprise.

(a) Whoever—

(1) organizes, manages, or supervises a continuing financial crimes enterprise; and

(2) receives $5,000,000 or more in gross receipts from such enterprise during any 24-month period, shall be fined not more than $10,000,000 if an individual, or $20,000,000 if an organization, and imprisoned for a term of not less than 10 years and which may be life.

(b) For purposes of subsection (a), the term "continuing financial crimes enterprise" means a series of violations under section 215, 656, 657, 1005, 1006, 1007, 1014, 1032, or 1344 of this title, c

Until recently, the only way to make a deposit was to visit a DOC cashier's office.

In an innovative plan, DOC has arranged with several money transfer agents to accept deposits for inmate accounts. This process is similar to how you "wire" money to someone. Instead of goin

- By Phone - call the toll-free numbers listed below for the participating money transfer agents. Use a credit or debit card to pay.
- By Internet - log on to the website for one of the participating money transfer agents. The websites are listed below. Use a credit or debit card to pay.
- Or, you can access the money transfer agent websites through DOC's Inmate Lookup System, available on DOC's public website. (See instructions below).
- By Walk In - go to any of the offices for the participating money transfer agents, just as you might to "wire" money. Use a credit or debit card, or cash, to pay.
- By Kiosk - at DOC cashier offices, some providers have set up kiosks where you can deposit money for an inmate. One of the money transfer agent's kiosks currently accept cash only; anoth

Fees for Money Transfers

- All transactions handled by the money transfer agents will require you to pay a fee. The fee may vary among the agents. (DOC does NOT receive any of these fees.)
- There is still no fee when you deposit money directly at a DOC cashier's window.

Information Required

To transfer money to an inmate using a money transfer agent, you need to supply the inmate's first and last name and book and case number.

To Use the Inmate Lookup System to Send Money

1. Go to www.nyc.gov/doc.
2. On the right, find the Inmate Lookup box.
3. Click Look Up Inmate.
4. Enter the inmate's NYSID or Book and Case Number. Or, enter the inmate's first and last name and date of birth (or age). This takes you to a listing for the inmate. If there are several inmates
5. On the page for the inmate, click the Send Money button.
6. This brings up an instruction page. Click on the logo for the money transfer agent you want to use. This takes you to the money transfer agent's website.
7. Follow the directions at the money transfer agent's website to complete your money transfer

To find a walk-in office, you can call the provider's toll free phone number.
