Hey Warith,

The amount of $1635.21 and those unauthorized entries on my card, as referenced in the link and supplements provided to you and yours have not been refunded to my card as of current.

The monies from Claim C-44433 and $105.73 was provided to me as a provisional credit and under John Daily, a specialist at your branch on the 15th.

Can you ensure this matter is brought to his attention as I miscalculated the total balance on my end, and you correctly indicated the total amount in your claim letter.

The 1-7 day grace period presents no conflicts as I do have other accounts, as I discussed with both Abdul and John — notwithstanding a TD Ameritrade account that I don't waste time with either.

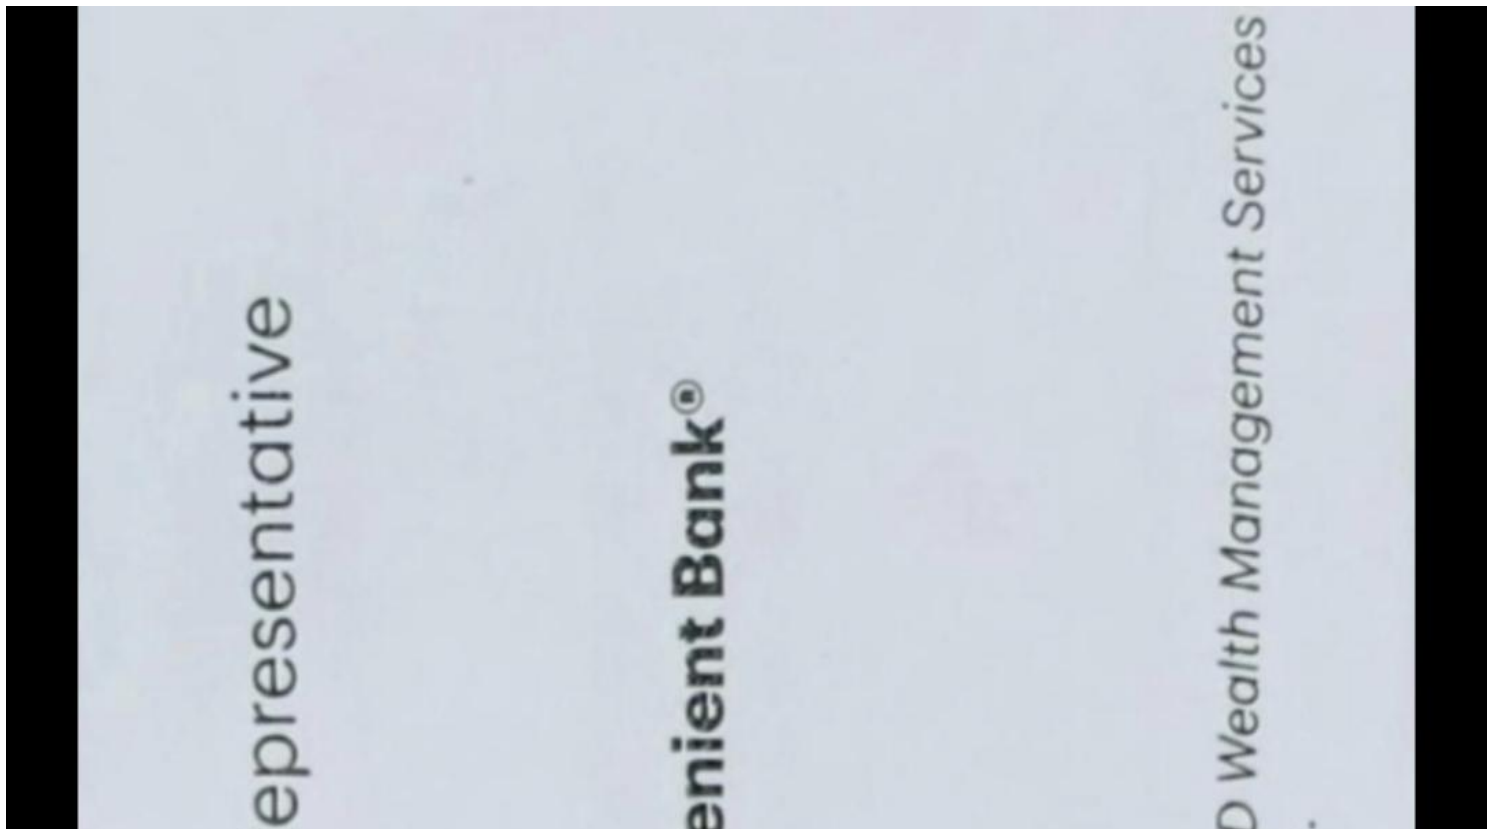

I understand you have other clients however just wanted to follow up as a courtesy after having filed the claim on Monday the 18th to also thank you for catching my mistake, albeit a small percentage of a difference, your total amount is correctly represented as $1635.21, not the $1631.07 that I had to calculate by hand using a pen.

Thanks again for your assistance Warith, it was a rounding error on my part of about 25bps but hey... every dollar counts, thank you again John for the earlier provision, 1300.

/S/ BO DINCER.

The total of $1631.07 I indicated by hand was in fact to your benefit ($4.14) and a sincere mistake on my part –
