Next time, can you at least promise not to leave matters to an ill-equipped group to maintain? This was flatlined from Nov 16 - Dec 18th, 2021. But hey, if i send another email i dont know what will happen.. so if you need anything further just email me.
- I offered to clear this with Mr.Moote for mmuch cheaper than $ 852,029,489.38 .

I apologize, but any further lip or obstruction from these Zuckers and their counselors will more likely than not —end terribly.

Also make matters worse, they casually email while making these power moves.. TY.

At least think about a 10-day and call PIMCO or something before you bring this to the same board that I believe misled you as well

PIMCI is generally neutral in my experience (not a dealership) and you can show this to them with my implied anonymity, but I can't email its going to cause problems the regulators and their obligation to the public, to be honest...

I PROMISE IT IS THE PROPER APPROACH, in my humble opinion
[ten day and calm PIMCO].

Most respectfully,

/S/ BO DINCER.
